

Tallahassee Classical School

Scholar Honor Code

Mission of Tallahassee Classical School:

To train the minds and improve the hearts of young people through a content-rich classical education in the liberal arts and sciences, with instruction in the principles of moral character and civic virtue.

Being a scholar at Tallahassee Classical School is a privilege. This education that is liberally given provides a unique opportunity for each individual scholar to be treated as a human being with dignity and worth in order to learn as much as they possibly are able. With this privilege comes certain expectations and responsibilities for each scholar. Therefore, each scholar must commit to uphold each of the following:

To Parents:

I will attempt to honor my parents in everything I think, say, and do.

I will seek to learn all that I can from them.

I acknowledge that I cannot receive what I need in life without them.

To My Teacher:

I will demonstrate respect, attentiveness, gratitude, and obedience to my teachers.

I will seek to do all the work I have been assigned with diligence, and integrity.

I will do my utmost to learn as much and achieve as much as I possibly can.

My Classmates:

I will honor and respect the time, work, and feelings of my fellow scholars.

I will try to model honesty, integrity, kindness, and modesty in all my relationships.

I realize that disturbances affect everyone at school and will thus strive for peace.

As a Tallahassee Classical School scholar, I commit to uphold the standards of this Honor Code.
