

Tallahassee Classical Uniform and Dress Code Policy

Scholars are required to wear a uniform to school and at school events. Items that differ from the uniform and code specifications will not be accepted.

Violations of the Uniform and Dress Code

It is the responsibility of the parents to enforce the uniform policy with their own scholar(s). If scholars arrive and are not dressed properly then the faculty and administration will handle all violations. All interpretations of the policy are left to the discretion of the administration. There is a "Dress Code Violation Form" at the end of the Family Handbook. The form includes a list of these violations. If a scholar is not in compliance with the uniform and dress code requirements, the following consequences will be enforced as follows:

1st Violation - Parents will receive an email from the Homeroom teacher describing what is wrong with the uniform. Parents are to respond.

2nd Violation - Parent will be called to come with appropriate uniform items for the scholar within 1 hour of the phone call or the scholar will serve a lunch detention. The scholar will stay in class.

3rd Violation - The teacher will give the form to the Discipline Coordinator who will call the parents to bring the item within 1 hour of the phone call or the scholar will serve an after school detention.

4th Violation - The Dean of Operations & Administration will receive the forms from the Discipline Coordinator and the 4th violation from the teacher. The Dean will have the parents come in for a conference. If the parents do not respond, then the scholar will receive a referral. The referral is logged into FOCUS and goes on their record.
